Charlie Huiner Elected to Scholarship Foundation Board of Directors

Santa Barbara, CA — Charlie Huiner, an accomplished medical technology entrepreneur and executive with almost two decades of leadership experience in the healthcare sector, has joined the Board of Directors for the Scholarship Foundation of Santa Barbara.

Mr. Huiner currently serves as president and CEO of Modulim, a medical imaging company headquartered in Irvine. Previously, he held leadership roles at three Santa Barbara-based companies: chief operating officer at Sientra, vice president of marketing and business development at InTouch Health, and director of corporate development and strategy at Inamed Corp. (now Allergan). His prior experience also includes a stint as vice president of corporate development at Isolagen (now Fibrocell Science). Mr. Huiner earned his bachelor’s degree at Williams College, and an M.B.A. in finance and marketing at Northwestern University’s Kellogg School of Management. He currently serves on the Modulim Board of Directors and as an independent Board member for Recros Medica.

“Charlie is clearly an astute strategic thinker, a faculty that will undoubtedly serve our organization well. We are very pleased to have him as a Board member,” said Scholarship Foundation President and CEO Barbara Robertson.

The Scholarship Foundation of Santa Barbara is the nation’s largest community-based provider of college scholarships, having cumulatively awarded more than $137 million to over 55,000 county students since its founding in 1962. A nonprofit organization, the Scholarship Foundation also provides free financial aid advising services. For additional information, visit www.sbscholarship.org.
