Tracey Solomon Elected to Scholarship Foundation Board of Directors

Santa Barbara, CA — Tracey Solomon, a partner in the audit department at local accounting firm Bartlett, Pringle, & Wolf LLP, has joined the Board of Directors for the Scholarship Foundation of Santa Barbara.

A Santa Barbara native, Ms. Solomon earned a bachelor’s degree in business economics with an emphasis in accounting at UCSB before joining Bartlett, Pringle & Wolf in 2003. In addition to financial statement audits for companies and nonprofit organizations, her specialties include employee benefit plan audits, special district audits, equity-based transactions, and corporate reorganizations. Ms. Solomon serves on the UCSB Economic Forecast Project’s Board of Directors and is a member of the Santa Barbara Foundation’s Audit and Cyber Security committees. A member of both the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the California Society of CPAs, she was named Accountant of the Year by California’s Special District Association and has been included in Pacific Coast Business Times’ “Top 50 Women in Business” and “Who’s Who in Professional Services” lists.

“In light of her expertise and experience, Tracey is a welcome addition to the Foundation Board of directors. We are very pleased to have her,” said Interim Scholarship Foundation President and CEO Mary Dwyer.

The Scholarship Foundation of Santa Barbara is the nation’s largest community-based provider of college scholarships, having cumulatively awarded more than $140 million to some 60,000 county students since its founding in 1962. A nonprofit organization, the Scholarship Foundation also provides free financial aid advising services. For additional information, visit www.sbscholarship.org.
